Notes:
The European Union as an entity provided $67.6 million in international support for mine action. The Howard Buffett Foundation provided $16.1 million to mine action activities in Colombia in 2017. Other international donors contributing less than US$3 million each included the Office of Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs, the OPEC Fund for International Development, Sudan Humanitarian Fund, UNA-Sweden, and the United Nations.

States Parties to the Mine Ban Treaty are bold. Signatory is italics. OTHER AREAS are UPPERCASE ITALICS.
