Support for Mine Action: 2017

National contributions
- More than $15 million
- $3-15 million
- Less than $3 million

International donors
- More than $15 million
- $3-15 million
- Less than $3 million

Recipients
- More than $15 million
- $3-15 million
- Less than $3 million

Notes:
The European Union as an entity provided $67.6 million in international support for mine action.
The Howard Buffett Foundation provided $16.1 million to mine action activities in Colombia in 2017. Other international donors contributing less than US$3 million each included the Office of Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs, the OPEC Found for International Development, Sudan Humanitarian Fund, UNA-Sweden, and United Nations.

States Parties to the Mine Ban Treaty are bold. Signatory states are italics. OTHER AREAS are UPPER CASE ITALICS.